Dear [REDACTED]

The referendum on whether we stay in Europe is the biggest decision we have faced in a generation.

Please sign and return the enclosed pledge card to commit to voting Remain on Thursday June 23. Doing so will help make sure we do not turn our back on the opportunity, freedom and jobs that come with being a part of Europe.

The polls show that without your vote, there is a real possibility that Britain will vote to Leave. If we do, our economy, our security and our place in the world will be damaged.

Let's be clear - Europe is not perfect, but that doesn't mean we just walk away.

For all its problems, being in Europe makes us stronger, safer and better off. Our businesses can trade more easily across the continent, our police can work across borders to catch criminals and we can come together to tackle global challenges like climate change. Perhaps best of all, together we've built a stable, peaceful Europe after the violence and tragedy of World War II and the threat of the Cold War.

Whenever I speak to someone unsure which way to vote, or whether they should bother voting at all, I tell them what makes me so passionate about staying in Europe. It is a desire to do the best for my children. To ensure they grow up in a country that is optimistic, hopeful and full of opportunity.

For a peaceful, prosperous and secure future, we have to stay in Europe.

This referendum is going to be close. A handful of votes across the country may well decide our fate. Please sign and return the pledge card today.

We won't get another chance to make this decision. Make sure your voice is heard. Vote Remain.

Best wishes,

Tim Farron MP
Leader of the Liberal Democrats
