The eve of my seventieth birthday! I thought I were fifty instead of knowing I am seventy

A strange life - on Susan Larson's mental
- incidentally an unpleasant shock for me!

In 3 days left back

Friday I was at (Susan's) Surgery for the flood done in an hospital & reckoning up on losses. Susan had been energetic, ~~but the~~ had got the place cleaned up on one behalf & he insists in phasing the compensation & money on ~~account~~ ^{for} her losses (Smith put up with her life from the hospital - bed room) So she I found ~~she~~ in her pretty ~~delusion~~ I was in a tired ~~and~~ ^{very} ~~relaxed~~ ^{to} state of mind. ~~See~~ In some way a ~~woman~~ she started to talk on to Robert ~~Robert~~ & began to talk about the story of his ~~Robert~~ child, it being stated in court that she was the sister of the head - head of the B of E. I remarked that to look at the episode as "a light on Susan's

I insisted that he should inform Lady M. and that I would be the agency of his report of what I had said.

There would be pursuing her in the as the West House Affair. I am sure it is a very part of crisis for heavy loss - report for correction or traditional ~~method~~ ^{manner} ~~method~~, when she is in the the end, without giving a new ~~copy of moral values~~ ^{scope of moral values}.

Part of it is the result of her past platform speaking, confined by the desire of a rich woman, belonging to the University class, to demonstrate that she feels, certainly a category of mission of to prove it is a chronic side of her resignation. Which is not true; if if ever true, she would not be living ^{thought} a ~~compulsive~~
 - self-complicated life - to most of her life.

It is very hard for the rich man to enter to learn fully & maintain ^{his} intellectual & emotional integrity ~~and~~ to be ^{account} ~~part~~ of her "organs" is helpful to her own emotional temperance. So consistently she begins to protest, reforms & denounces, only herself up into an active position, ^{as} ~~as~~ as centered features on a great deep voice (to the such a thing as a false case in a woman.) During this episode she is an ally to me in to learn inward - mostly physical.
 What is her damage then political perhaps is let she fight it off her colleagues they don't trust her judgment, they fear her sudden intervention; they keep clear of her. It is a pity because she is full of spirit & genuine concern to make things better; she is immensely industrious & has a horror of a constitution and is her way she is an excellent effort - her work. To her late severe fate & sorrows she has escaped many of the usual ailments of her former life. But I doubt whether she makes to the ultimate strength of her mind.

 The proposal however is serious & new ways to make the standard of education higher & good names: Rose & John Day etc. Mary - Bowyer, whom she despises Don Doso - Mary's may be a "sounding board" for her leader's opinions but she knows true. In her dealings with friends & ~~in~~ friends alike she is kind & generous
 - a Christ-like gentleness. In a cabinet she might be a poor counsellor but she would be a good colleague. In spite of that - ~~she~~ as an able & good will save her might be better to use her to other.
 Hence to Front Bench ~~turn~~ the finest mind; even to that effect ~~the~~ sum & little way & it input. ~~She is not that~~ ~~She is not that~~ ~~but~~ ~~her~~ accepting an offer to broadcast, ~~my first attempt at broadcasting~~: a part of a hour talk on Herbert Spencer (for ex. let's suppose) on Feb 27. It is slow by 200 but 2 or 3 days with 2 coincident very int. lines. Little piece of activity. But it struck me that even I am no longer pleased with writing I might like usually to broadcast - if I know there to be a chance of it. ~~Therefore~~ I don't to judge of my aged voice & my new hope to broadcast. However it will be an experience. Like of being in the New & again during as I prospered & took to Russia by airplane - probably it will come off - for there are limits & other narrow limits to my physical power. Living a steady routine life in healthy surroundings I can, by doing a little every day & working over it a great time into good feeling - ^{so long} ~~but~~ ^{as} doing ^{it} then to carry out the ~~unpleasant~~ ^{unpleasant} on a whole - What his superior energy & mass massive intellect I can do up to. Little short-time jobs & things not well. When he is going down, even for three days, I sometimes feel that what he & I do he is ~~intending~~ perhaps a and he better off to ~~be~~ ^{feel} ~~down~~ ^{state} ~~of things~~ - When he is there I feel young & adventuresome again and plan out "yet more chess" varied ~~interests~~ by seeing him. The other may attempt to stuff ^{always} - preferring this route is what she ~~does~~ find memories of her own in a double effort. It is the habit of repeating, when I was a girl, episodes in which ^{myself} I had figured in an engaging way, inevitable "too good to be true" - is a very tiresome habit - ~~of course~~ it leads to the ^{the} sort of half-contemptuous ^{viewer's} picking ^{and} opportunity of relation - a friend to the aged;

 - and I find myself offering to them as the easiest form of intercourse. She has other interests - but even then she can not listen to opinion similar to her own
 - all contrary opinions are soundly rebutted however being called off wrong. The advantage of this one-sidedness is that she believes in a fact - a little each of person with broader opinion who admits a love for as a person heads a few hours of the.

She is a very happy old lady - has no loss of desire to depart this life. I believe my discomfit has been racial due to the ^{her own} ~~her own~~ ^{and} my broadcast talk on Monday. I try to remind myself of all the routine annoying and committal talks of my life since I have listened to her on the present as far as I may be able of our ~~present~~ But her age - I recognize the ^{value} ~~value~~ of old persons to the station. Even if I had to change I don't think I will have next year - if I have too much out of my driving quarters. However, I will visit you.

I was in a devil of a funk as I walked ~~Wolfe~~ To the Lighthouse & Virginia Woolf represents the latest fashion in the technique of novel writing. The story - so far as there is a story - is told by a running inscription of the stream of consciousness in ~~of~~ the principal person's mind - when this person dies, this another ^{mind} is taken as the medium - & then ~~the~~ ^{with} ^{all} comes.

 To me this method is objectionable because it assumes that ~~the~~ ^{the author} ~~can~~ ^{can} see into ^{another} mind ~~and~~ ^{and} record what happens he records as ~~reliable~~ ^{and} a person's behavior can be ~~relied~~ ^{relied} on ~~his~~ ^{his} words ^{is} ~~to~~ ^{to} tell what happens and ~~what~~ his surroundings & what happens to him ^{related} what one suspects is that Virginia is telling you of her own stream of consciousness to say one she knows ^{of} her own ~~her~~ ^{her} ~~own~~ ^{own} ~~and~~ ^{and} knowledge. So let Group me to the question Can I read my own consciousness?
 So ~~often~~ ^{often} if it seems too vague & distant & disconnected too ~~disconnected~~ - then an current or currents - certainly rising or falling is ~~above~~ ^{above} ~~vividness~~ ^{vividness} - sometimes historical, sometimes

Vocal, sometimes sharp & deliberate Sometimes part of a pattern made up of personal contacts & relative position, sometimes concepts abstract & intellectual. Some emotional — ~~often~~ personal & impersonal — all is all ^{very} ^{conscious} ^{descriptions}. In the last few days ~~for instance~~, I have been ~~haunted~~ haunted ^{only} by the shocking appearance of Ade Wills — she came here with ^{her} Charles Wills ~~for lunch & tea~~ She has been sleeping plain, but this time she looked repulsive & Sidney perceived it as surely as I do. "Some Bras on to take it London, no occupation & the lack of any aim or purpose in life"? I ventured as a explanation. She has become immoral yet especially to lower part ^{relayed the truth} of her body & mind broken. She said she was "with well": I remember it from the Little Girl that she was obviously dying of cocaine poisoning. What has ^{reached} ^{her} ^{character} & ^{constitution}, is that her lit. Jane has gone to college, but with three hundred a year to live on, has nothing chosen to do or to live for. It is true she has had days some on the slave for today ^{to know for} ^{to compare} It is the tragedy of an vacant heart and unoccupied mind. The condition is also Profoundly the degradation with get more than asked of her

The question: Can anything be done? Perhaps if he writes an exposition to take charge of her - even if she ~~is allowed to do~~ ^{shows herself} to be controlled as they have done all they can do is giving her a sufficient income to live in ease & comfort. As at sixty-five years of age, there is little chance of a change of conduct or direction of - ~~deliberate~~ self-control. But the thought of her sinking into a self-dragged ~~script~~ ^{script} is a ~~horrible~~ ^{horrible} thought - one feels guilty of neglect without really knowing why one should ~~do~~ feel guilty - & without the remotest intention of accepting ^{further} responsibility. So that's that. Presently the thought of her will disappear from my consciousness & someday I shall hear of her death & say ~~an~~ ^{an} ~~emancipated~~ "Poor Ade" - perhaps adding, ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~words~~ ^{words} ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~kind~~ ^{kind} ~~is~~

The Snowden ^{has} ~~branches~~ ^{branches} to meet ~~to~~ ^{to} Henderson who are staying a long week ^{with us}, Snowden was remarkably fit & self-confident - W. Snowden looks out of sorts. I took her round the garden & she insists on confiding in me - very delusional I thought - let her think - she might be suffering from an internal complaint - she is at the turn of life - a strong few cancer like ^{most} all women do at her age. And she adds "very contented" but she has never "lived with Philip" & let us see a "normal woman" has let her law know. Which I can well believe. ~~over~~ it causes a good deal of her trouble of a social position & the equally excitement of ^{the smart set?} ~~social standing~~. ~~Provisional~~

 In former Sweden was the best-man of to Party worship - better that good like Henderson is coming by Berlin will lose his money & let to Helen Park will be called to give because that may be his terms - Sidney still believe is a hope for,

 - some conservative. Major - the non success of the Liberal campaign. However, I am ready to note, even let if the Helen Park took of Sidney is to the High. "I shall stay -

 Conclusion
 No
 over the course

The seeing that some front-bench by Sidney will be required to in to do his & behave of course, discuss the prospects

I shd very decidedly prefer not - it would involve the troublesome task of taking to office & refusing the title to use the title - ^{this} ~~it~~ could be done but it wd be unpleasant doing it - Also as the salary wd be smaller it wd mean expense - he wd have to continue to serve in office until order is do all - ^{on the other hand} I think he wd like the extreme political activity under present conditions - it wd be an equal reason for going & having a good club to go to. So the simplest way ~~of~~ out of all the difficulty of deciding is to do what the Party wants - ~~it~~ to let the leaders know that we shall not be - at least have a disappointment of the question - not raised but that if they hardly do want him he will "do his best". But we still think that the

Can I make my own? There seem to perhaps the dominant one - the long last pain

It was Helwan who created & fostered the Fatherly, "Wells Myth" that followed so rapidly & advantageously for us & our schemes, it is just decay & to ~~the~~ century. Even were the idealised myth withered & was replaced by a caricature Holmes was one of the few who, confident of a certain disinterestedness, remains faithful to an old friendship.

[Holmes's one & only great defect was a certain crossness of affection, an unregarded desire to stroke up his egoism physical but he felt forced at least & hesitations; then later, Dudley & Markey had ^{insat} no effect on his mind or manner, like if he in the middle or him on Berkeley - he was always ^{in his fine alert mind & manners} self-possessed & content but it eventually ^{severed his intellect} "ruined" his health & led to permanent ill. At 11-30, I sometimes speculate whether, if by some miracle he had been converted to hypnosis abolition, he might not have lost some of the amazing levitiness of his tempered-concern for his friend's troubles, & some of ^{his} constant care for the public good? [What bound us together on accounts ^{was} was our common faith in a ^{on which} steadily growing society - the application of science to human relations into a way of [I forgot - that we did in the early 40s, when - he in his personage ^{Colonel} ~~of~~ City in Court which was of to magic hidden has a part in freedom freedom has his own ~~interest~~ prospects, if he can truly see a person

 I can see one of his ~~best~~ ^{best} ~~examples~~. The ~~clear~~

 Any Labour policy is to let no mind to the

Sept. 29th

Richard Russell Sceptical Essays are a series of brilliant "propaganda pieces" at concert pitch delivered on different occasions to admiring circles in U.S.A. & Britain & China. One is a considerable performance - the essay on Leibniz's Calculus Philosophicus - the others are slight & aptly chosen & fitting in their own right. To one who has the analysis of the main currents of metaphysical ^{speculative} thought & the present day ^{analytical} ~~science~~ ^{philosophy} (taking Einstein's relativity for a model) seem a masterpiece of lucid thought & witty expression - ~~one of the best pieces of writing I have ever read~~ & the two lucid & witty to be convincing to an "old hand" at the job of picking to pieces other people's arguments. One recognizes the element of caricature - and especially thought he does not agree with a position he does not share is one of Berkeley's little tricks at which he is super ^{skilful} ~~skilful. But there is his summary which seem to me surprisingly helpful. The first characteristic of the philosophy is that it abandons the claim to a special philosophical method.~~ as a peculiar branch of knowledge to be obtained by its means. It requires philosophy as essentially one with science, differing fr. the special sciences chiefly by the generality of its problems & (the fact that it is concerned with the foundation of hypothesis from empirical evidence is still lacking. It concerns but all knowledge is scientific knowledge to be ascertained & proved by the method of science. In particular it does not attempt as the German idealists did to deduce the nature of the world on a basis fr. the nature of knowledge. It regards knowledge as a natural fact like ~~any other natural fact~~ another, with no symptoms & no cosmic importances. This ~~opinion~~ ^{is} correct that I have always thought, but fails to explain, ^{with regard to} ~~and~~ all ~~that~~ ~~belonging~~ ~~to~~ ~~the~~ ~~processes~~ ~~of~~ ~~life~~ — but I still think that this scientific method is not the way in wh. the human being does [a can] reach the purpose of life — why but he attains to having a purpose — ~~the~~ ~~end~~. & beyond the animal purpose of ^{2. sensual enjoyment} survival. I doubt whether ~~but~~ ~~we~~ ~~can~~. The intellect has much ~~to~~ ~~do~~ ~~with~~ ~~the~~ ~~celestial~~ ~~choir~~ a scheme of personal & general conduct.

On this point I am a heretic.

The weakest part of Russell's philosophy is, to my mind, the basic proposition, and he states it at length & in introduction, in the Thesis of his work: "That it is irrational to believe a proposition when there is no ground for supposing it is true". This he then explains, tho' it seems ^{absurd}, is irrelevant ^{as a guide to conduct} in view of his own position becomes absurd. The person who has not-

Russell & I wd agree to call false beliefs, always or nearly always believe that there is ground for supposing the silly notion true.

The proposition thereby keeps the ^{two} questions of - "1) What is the nature of evidence, and ²⁾ who is entitled to judge it? As a matter of fact outside ones own specific own letters statements of fact or the actions of other people without enquiring what are the grounds for believing these statements are true. The best one can do is to know that one is accepting another person's judgment & that one must therefore keep "an open mind". But the trouble is that, in our eyes, one could not judge the truth of a statement, even if it took pieces of observation & verification were less than it is now)

Every scene has its own language of drawing subject matter & even that of a part ^{of the picture} - these / d.

What makes Basilio's adoption of this picture, still more obscure, even ^{feel some} ^{hypocritical}, is that throughout these essays he makes separate statements about all sorts of subjects without either personal bias or a complete authority - just because he happens to like the idea or because he alleges that reflects some emotional preference. In his I find on another I find:

He

He writes in particular condemnation of everything, cannot because he feels he himself in his own mind is without any personal - other basis; ~~the~~

Conduct

with it

There is of course another explanation of this element of distortion - ~~namely~~ he is a wit, and a stylist - a lawyer here gets the very naturally when to do his job. The P.A.s & Dean have his conception of ~~truth~~ ^{truth to Omb} is dominated by the desire to attract attention.
 Now of course it is desirable to attract attention in order to convey what you consider to be truth - If you don't ~~truly~~ ^{entirely} trying to sell a product - advertising!

 and which is certainly ~~inimical~~ ^{inimical} ~~to~~ ~~the~~

 we have got at least a dozen ^{copy} pamphlets - & are going to use them with notes & next paper articles the London Protestants. In every week we we have friends staying here: the Sunday School & my personally a nephew of Rev. Dr. Bates; a charming youth - looking here as if he were a S. of E. & looking forward to learn Peltier's Latin in a life.

 Meanwhile the Latin Prof is doing well Whether all is equally well for the business of parents, or a share in the on the temperance of the party & the delusions self-interest of the home only I trust -

 St. Martin Review, & Preface (Pat Dobb & the Wicksteed) ~~not to be published~~. The last few days I have been drifting into mechanical care, the syllabus for from today on "How to study social facts" for broadcasting & radio. Whether it can rise to take on this extra job, time will show.
 When I was ^{at my first assistant} asked to read history & decline I suggested that I might undertake such a course but that I should ask £50 for it. As I got no answer, I thought that the RAE was considered the price too high for the value offered.
 But it seems to me that it is not worth while spending my energy and competing with Jones folk unless I will have something better to offer than other broadcastings & the present comes and he speaks of ethics & good I feel man to the owner too.

 A few days ago they seem very good to & to time free to visit me so I shall have to turn out, by his work, ~~something~~ a performance of - poor judge. This work out of the technique of broadcasting - which is to substitute a delivery - interests me intensely & I listen to the talks which I deliver by friends & strangers with ~~various~~ variety defect I notice ^{in many broadcasts} is the repetition of emphasis or a particular word or phrase in the sentence & it gets on the nerves of the listener. As soon as the individual broadcast repeats these repetitions of mechanical emphasis or singling out, become intolerable & you cease to listen to the performer.

The work of November & December must be

Our last visit to the little Secord

 An upright good looking ~~with plain speaking~~ intimate with the father, with ^{obvious} appreciation of her delicate importance as an ex-Prime

 The ^{main} ~~main~~ was interest & attraction

But the honor of being reported & the [When Sidney has been ~~coming~~ out of The Recurrence of a Related Incident

I am still grinding at least chapters of the book — proving each section of peddling, adding sharper the points, adding illustrations. Meanwhile ~~the~~ the Guardians are being swept away without any ^{else} paying it least attention to their fervent protests. Francis the Head of the P. L. D. — who was always ^{to deal with} safe but there is no sign either at Westminster or at the Comstock of questioning or protests on this issue; every M. P. & every Lord Comstock & of course is "doing some or getting some done for him" although to the extent of the J. R. J. reports. Doubtless their children will ~~be~~ add centres of discontent & even pay against to prevent (what) — indeed the unpopularity of the Comstock led to your grace — but even ~~the~~ to get an thorough ~~independent~~ investigation & even clerks to get are saying confidentially outside the boundaries but their boards are not fit to govern? Whether ^{opinion to demand 15000} they will ever be used on of the particular form of Gov. of - Start of Smith have at least the instruction of - dealing with the subject - matter completely & finally - according to the

IN CARICATURE.

MR. A. S. PARKER, whose drawing in caricature is produced below, is one of our own, and a workman at Dawdon Colliery. He has had no special schooling in the art of drawing, and his work demonstrates the hidden possibilities latent in the working-classes. Mr. Parker will contribute in future issues of the "Labour News."

RIGHT HON. SIDNEY WEBB, M.P.

De-Rating under Fire.

A LABOUR ATTACK.

VIVID PICTURE.

The next day when WEBB began, the House of Commons vanished and we saw a nimble witted and quick footed gladiator with a fine short pointed sword jabbing and digging at slow-moving enemy. Prick, prick, prick, he went on, and every prick left its mark. He laughed at his foe, he played with him, and then he pricked him. Goaded into interruption, Mr Chamberlain rose to correct him. Webb played with him, read a clause of the Bill, asked him what he had to say now—but the Minister remained in his seat. As one of his old weapons Webb brought in a coffin, banged it on their heads and when it had done its work, he seized a loaf of bread and threw it at them. They say it was Webb's swan song. Well, I never before heard a swan song that had a more devastating trill in it.

Curious fact about the 3 other sisters was that tho' we were very good intimate. As perhaps I am least intimate & so was most to blame for this lack of tenderness. For Margaret I had a real affection & her death was a ^{dead} sorrow. ~~That of Scott~~ - her loss if her come - is also a sorrow

- but the sorrow is more because I feel I ought to feel her loss more cannot be said to be a brilliant result - for all we are rather depressed and plan to get away - We need a complete

 When I was down at Passover to Also said Henderson, who whom we learned today (March 30th), "you will be wanted in a later form" - We don't believe it: we see no chance of a later marriage & we doubt whether it will be possible to come to terms with Gladys. It is just conceivable that John will find himself open/called to ~~that~~; but his tenure will be short & it must be long enough to see Sidney & Susan down, but he will wrap into a common life for months. So he it will not affect our lives, unless he who is felt called on to lead the cause here in opposition. That might be an addition a good addition to his life - to me it would mean more separation from him & a certain strain on our income ^{in order} to supply down money for him. However, as to decisions will not rest upon - we need not be troubled by by accepting pros & cons. If he is wanted & it does he will go & do his best, & on the whole he will be glad,
