

Farmers will be better off if we vote to leave the EU

"EU regulations make life hard for the UK's farmers. If we have the courage to Vote Leave and take back control, we would be free to think again and could achieve so much more for farmers and our environment."

George Eustice, Farming Minister

Vote Leave, take control

After we Vote Leave and take back control from the European Union we can:

- Protect farmers' subsidies – and even increase them like non-EU Switzerland, Norway and Iceland do
- Reduce regulations on farmers and abolish the hated 'basic payment system'
- Target our money on environmental protection, conservation and flood defences
- Decide our own rural policy with people who fully understand the UK industry and environment

If we vote to remain, we will be tied into the EU's nightmare bureaucracy forever.

It's safer to Vote Leave, take back control and spend our money on our priorities.

"I believe the UK has a great future beyond the EU. Under a UK rural policy, we could pay more than the CAP, regulation could be massively simplified, and subsidies could be more specifically tailored to the UK's industry, geography and climate."

Owen Paterson, DEFRA Secretary 2012-14
