

Station & } Nannerch.
Telegrams }
Telephone Hendre 37.

AL/3329 A-4th March

Miss Biddicom
Penbedw,
Nannerch,
Flintshire.

3.3.36

My dear Lady Carrie -

I did not write, as I thought you were somewhere on the other side of the world - & now someone has mentioned casually that you are still in Wiltshire - I am so very sorry - I hope it is over, & that as it was, & that you are beginning to enjoy the spring in that southern land - (we here are just being snowed upon).

I am leading a rather jumble life, but very pleasant with my Grand Venetia - But I seemed to get no better, & now they have discovered that I have only $\frac{1}{2}$ the normal allowance of red corpuscles, & they hope that this

Corsham 2 June 4.

For his Sho worn

my heart last

entirely - & it would be lovely to find you -

I'm very affly

Yours

Ernest is mch at last to work.

explains all troubles - I shall have to go rather slowly this year, & not do any real Arabian travels till 1937 - but I have been kept busy meanwhile & finished my book, which comes out in May. It is time to see the end of that - I do dislike writing so.

What miserably was news! - I feel I must want to go to Italy again - & who will ever trust his word? It will no doubt make the Egyptians more easy to negotiate with, as Egypt is supposed to be the 2nd step on the road of conquest - They showed every sign of preferring the British leg to the Italian I took when I was there 18 months ago -

Will you be in with him all summer? Some time I hope to go - later on - to see the Methuens at