Dear Miss Strachey

Frederick is, I am sorry to say, again very unwell
- I am rather afraid it is a return of influenza. So there is no hope of her going out today.

Taking to heart Mrs Heitland's remarks about the Press Guroli & line or two to the Daily Graphic suggesting that a sketch of your literature seller might be picturesque, and I enclosed a card on which I had endorsed "Representa-tive of the Daily Graphic"

The D.G. does its reports and pictures quite tastefully to those I want & indiscreet.
Of course nobody may come or if anybody does, it may not be this week.

Very truly yours

Clementine Black
