Dear Mr. Smithies Taylor,

I think it is now quite certain that the witnesses for the defence will be required on Monday afternoon next.

Will you be kind enough, therefore, to attend at the Old Bailey on Monday afternoon at a quarter to two, and I anticipate that I shall be able to call you before the Court rises that day.

I do not think it would be possible to bring out the points which you mention in your letter.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

F. W. Pethick Lawrence
