HARNHAM,

MONUMENT GREEN,

WEYBRIDGE.

30/10/06.

Dear Mrs Russell

My bag and I arrived safely, and before ten minutes were over I told my mother that she had made me miss the train. She replied "What you want is a proper flat nice dress suit case: I have told you to buy one again and again. How can you travel comfortably unless you have comfortable things?" Who won?

In Oxford I saw the Shelley: the life is indeed ugly, and the dome tawdry I suppose; but I do still like it, upholstery and all.

I enjoyed my visit so much:
it was very kind of you to ask me. I hope ~~the~~ the cat is well; ours would send kind enquiries, but has just been smacked for eating a beetroot.

Again thanking you for your kindness,

I remain

Yours sincerely

E. M. Forster.
