HIS INFLUENCE

RECRUITING SERGEANT: "Now, then, my man, come and fight for your country!"

IDLE HUSBAND: "Not me! Mustn't remove my influensh from my wife, or she might waste her time drinking."

(In the course of a statement made to the Central (Unemployed) Body for London, the Chairman is reported in the "Daily Telegraph" to have attributed the alleged increase of drunkenness among soldiers' wives to the fact that they "were suddenly getting money, and had lost the influence of their husbands.")

OUR NEW VENTURE Club for Working Women

It is impossible to carry on an open-air campaign in a poor district in winter without ealising how few places are open to women in which they can enjoy a cheap meal in warm, clean surroundings, and where they can for a short time escape from the worries of home and the deeper anxieties produced by the war. Herein lies the attraction of the public-house; out United Suffragists do not mean to waste their time in deploring the fact that women are driven to take shelter there. In South London, where they have been carrying on a vigorous suffrage campaign since the spring, they mean to open immediately a Women's Club, where the women can have a substantial tea at cost price, a warm room to sit in and read the papers, talk, and play draughts or other games. Here they will learn all about the woman's movement and what it means to occasional suffrage meetings and simple enter- and had a voice in making the laws and guiding

How You Can Help US and Our Club

We call upon our readers confidently to help us to run our Club. Miss Hickey, who works in the Civil Service all day, has gallantly offered her services, or those of a substitute, every evening. If a woman worker can do this, surely there are many leisured women who wil come forward and promise their attendance and help for regular afternoons and evenings? So

Mrs. Boden: £1 per month for six months. Mrs. C. E. Ireland: 10s. per month for four months.

Miss Putnam: £1 per month.

CHRISTMAS FAIR

The proceeds of the Christmas Fair will be devoted to the upkeep of the Women's Club, so we look both to members of U.S. and readers of Votes for Women to make this a success. It will last for one day, from 3 till 10 p.m., and will take place in the Eustace Miles' Restangant Check Check Company (New York) (New Yo will take place in the Eustace Miles' Restaurant, Chandes Street, W.C., on Friday, Decem-

It is good to hear that Mr. M'Combs has introduced into the New Zealand
Parliament a Legislative Amendment Bill which proposes to sweep away the lause which now prevents women rom sitting in that assembly. The Canterbury Times, in a leading article trongly supporting Mr. M'Combs in his venture, says: "We cast no reflection upon our present representatives. his venture, says: "We cast no reflection upon our present representatives any more than we censure our gardener for not being a first-class housemaid. . . . Fifty years hence the spectacle of a male Parliament floundering unaided in the details of child legislation and national housekeeping would excite the same smile that the diatribes of the Early Victorian anti-feminists excite to-day."

The war has broken out since the Bill was introduced, which will probably prejudice its chances. But Mr. M'Combs has taken the first step of an important journey, and we wish him heartily a safe arrival at last.
