Sunday Abrigdon - Berks

Dearest Pippa,

I wish I could be of some use, or do something for you, but there are so many of you at Hampstead, that I have felt I should only be in the way there - and the only thing I can do is to spare sick to you ungrudgingly. Tho' I would much rather be with him, while he is sad and worried.

I am so truly and deeply sorry for you - I know how you loved him and what a companion you were to him and can well imagine how you will miss him.

I hope Mamma is better and that the rest of the family is keeping well. Poor Dorothy must be rather shattered after her journey.

If a change and quiet at Tidworth are felt desirable by any of the family & we shall be delighted to have you.
We go back on the 27th

With love & sympathy

Grace.
