2, Gower Street.

Dear Lady Frances,

Lady Strachey sends me this as an appropriate valentine from Christabel P. L. W. Aquilla.

I think you will like it.

"By proof we feel
Our power sufficient to disturb his Heaven,
And with perpetual inroad to alarm,
Though inaccessible, his fatal Wound,
Which is not Victory is yet Revenge."

Paradise Lost Book II

We want a good conservative man speaker for the Albert Hall meeting on Ap 27,

I am asking Lady Knignton to help us to get one: but would you think about it too and let me know?

I was glad to hear you did not risk travelling to London in the dead of the night on Wednesday.

I was two hours late owing to the fog on Thursday morning.

I hope your husband is better.

Yours affectionately

W. Swinburn
