Dear Mr. Cavendish Bentinck
You kindly told me to write and let you know if at any time I could come and lunch with you.

I shall be in London on Saturday, and should be free for a short time after midday, if that would find you at home, not week-ending in the country.

If this gets to you in time will you reply to me at

LONDON
STREET
STREET

my London address - 53 Cleveland Square W.2.

I go up tomorrow, returning early on Monday. I have no other time of ^{Friday} that or any other day free.

My telephone number is Paddington 3385-, but as the flat is generally empty when I am not there, a card is easier for you.

Always sincerely yours
Lawrence Housman
