

AL/409

TELEGRAMS, EMPIRE, BATH.

TELEPHONE 227 BATH.

EMPIRE HOTEL,
BATH.

THE EMPIRE HOTELS

LONDON
BAILEY'S HOTEL
CLOUCESTER ROAD, S.W
SOUTH KENSINGTON HOTEL
QUEEN'S GATE TERRACE, S.W

BATH
EMPIRE HOTEL
BUXTON
EMPIRE HOTEL

BLACKPOOL
HOTEL METROPOLE
RAMSGATE
GRANVILLE HOTEL

LOWESTOFT
EMPIRE HOTEL
HASTINGS
PALACE HOTEL

14-6-1908

Dear Miss Strachey.

Indeed I appreciate
you more than I can tell you - your wire
yesterday - your
remembrance of me
when your head and
hands were full of so

much difficult work
was very pleasing to me.
And you are satisfied
are you not? It must have been from
every point of view
such a success —
a demonstration worthy
of the "constitutional"
monsters, and withal
a thing of beauty.
Three of my servants
walked representing
me — and carried

a bannerette! -

What steps are to be taken now - to convey the impression to

the Asquiths?

My doctor brought me
news yesterday morning
and at there were large

placards in Bath

~~yesterday~~ advertising the procession,

but <sup>all</sup> none? could a team

none him - it looked

to me rather as

though the S. & P. Union

was making capital

out of us for their demonstration - for the 2 announcements seemed to be on one poster - but
I may be mistaken.

I was making <sup>good</sup> progress
but ten days ago I got a relapse <sup>locally</sup> which put me back entirely

to bed for all last week.

I expect you are rightfully weary - but it is worth it for well I feel - I am so glad for your sake all
so well -

Yours sincerely, Bertha Mason