Dear Mr Cavendish Bantick you asked me to let you know of my next coming to London. I go up on Friday night for a whole of day of rehearsals on Saturday of my 'Little Plays', and shall be in town for the whole of the week following for the two programme performances.

Should I find you at but at present finding it not; as Pacifism has become my main political conviction; and most of our International Pacifists have a secret belief in civil war as a remedy.

I don't.

More when we meet, as I hope we may.

Always sincerely yours
Lawrence Houseman
