DIRECTIONS RELATING TO PETITIONS

A Petition is not legal (1) unless there is one written form, which must be placed for presentation on the top of all printed ones; (2) unless every sheet is exactly the same size and worded in precisely the same manner.

Each local governing area must have one written form

Indelible pencils or ink should be used, and every worker should have a penknife.

When all possible signatures have been obtained keep the petition forms carefully until you receive instructions from the Head Office.
