Wednesday

Dear Nellie, It is the greatest comfort, when thinking how you may be faring, to recall our last meeting in that scullery-like prison out house.

I wish I ~~could~~ to think of you like that always.

I wonder if it seems ^{to you} so long ago, ~~to you~~ as to me. Helen is so well & happy & robust. She has developed splendidly and is no longer a baby.
We are utterly enjoying her return. Yours Mark
