

60, ~~Haverstock Hill~~

Hampstead NW

sent stamped envelopes to Richmond

Chamberlains
2.14.12

114/12

4

Dear Mr. Taylor,

4095

14

I saw Mrs. Taylor today & found her quite well again & very cheerful, brave, & contented. She was glad to have your telegraphic message. Your letter arrived too late for today & I will read it on Thursday. I shall go Thursday this week, as Good Friday will be treated like a holiday & no visitors allowed. I shall write to Mrs Wilks about sending in a few articles of food.

I read a letter from Mrs
Wilks today.

I saw 16 persons today.
Please use discretion in reporting any news I may give of the prisoners.
Much haste but you will understand what a heap of extra writing I have now.
Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Fred Hartman

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

382

as she refused bail her 3 months date from March 19th - Her sentence was four months.