My very dear Friend

Thank you many-many-times for your delightful and interesting letter and also for your generous contribution towards the relief of my distressed fellow-country-people.

Heaven grant that our people and yours and all the nations may learn wisdom, so that, perceiving the wisdom, they may follow it and by their thought and will build up a world, in harmony with the Divine Will which is Happiness and Peace and goodwill.

There is an account of the Deputation in the 'Vote'

It reminds me of the old times when it was to Asquith and Lloyd George we presented ourselves. Times change and seasons pass!

Baldwin is very good in the art of speaking encouraging ly; but will he do anything I fear not. All the same it was quite as well to let him see the strength and reasonableness of our women's demand. sent AL/3572

Here, under this wretched and feeblest of Governments, a strenuous effort is being made to curtail the rights of women. I do not think it will succeed

And now, dear friend, let me say how happy I am, though seeing you so seldom to retain your friendship. I was rather ill the other day and was obliged to give up some of my work; but I am on my feet again for a little time. If possible I will pay my W. F. L. friends a visit in the Summer and then I hope we shall meet

Yours in true friendship and great affection
C. D. Stansby
