Dear Miss Strachey

I am editing for the Co. op^{re} Movement, a little 1st book of Songs, with popular tunes, to be sung at Co. op^{re} and our Guild Meetings. - and I should be very grateful if you could get me permission to include those by "H. Crawford" & "J. M. S.", sung at the Albert Hall Meeting.

Could I know at once? - as the book is needed - I hope you are having a good holiday after your labours - but it seems necessary to go to the Antipodes to escape: we are already being summoned to help in a Procession at Manchester -

With kind regards

Yours sincerely
