Dear Mrs Fawcett -

I have no engagements that I know of in March & shall be ready to fall in with any arrangements that you may make. When I announced at dinner that I had heard of you that Sir A. Borthwick was to introduce our Bice, Arthur so he had asked his advice as to whether he sh. do it, wh. does less was what he meant by thinking over it! I am very glad ~~to~~ we are to have so good a champion, tho' I doubt being in our favour - I can't help thinking that we shall have an early dissolution. I am now here till about the 10th of Jan -

Yrs sincerely
Francis Balfour

The Sidgwick's are here I am afraid th what Arthur says, he thinks there is a great want ~~and~~ of helping themselves among the Educational (women) people in Ireland. I will try & see what can be done re Jackson & the schoolmistresses
