Dear Miss Danne

I am venturing to ask a great favour of you.

Would it be possible for you to lend me for 2 or 3 days a copy of one of the "Occasional papers"

(little greenish blue books
I think 1 of the Oxford

Mission to Calcutta?

The one I want is a letter from some one out there who describes all the various objects a Hindoo will do pūja to - worshipping them.

I think it is the last no.
or last but one, & I dare say you remember it.

I send stamp for the postage to

Mrs Woodsworth

Chancery

Lincoln

& will carefully return, if you will be so very kind as to spare it me. I hope Mrs. Doune is pretty well, & Mrs. Spooner has quite got over the influenza.

With kind regards

Yr. very sincerely

Wordsworth

My own copy is ^{or was} at L.M.H. but I fear I can't explain to the servants what I want, & where to find it, so please forgive
my troubling you.
