

Sent-along
(promised)
TELEPHONE, 4492 WESTERN.

William & Fawcett

AL/889

32 ADDISON ROAD,
KENSINGTON, W.

Nov. 8./10.

My dear Mrs Fawcett.

I am going to speak at Preston the night of the 11th. Long ago, I planned a week end with friends in Liverpool. I thought I wd still take it "sneaking" quietly out of the 12th (the Albert Hall).

Tonight Miss Whitehead demands 'telephonically' ask I to be there. I confess to my "plan". She says "they will be disappointed." I mention I a not speaking, & plat forming in itself, does not seem need-say? What do you think?

one thing, my husband was going north ⁱⁿ Friday. Tonight, I am not sure if he will be well eno' to do so, in wh. case I might not feel so free to stay in Liverpool, as I did when of that he wd' be leaving. I promised to see Miss Whitehead tomorrow. If you are going, have a view, you might send me a cryptic Postcard, by 1st post, addressed to Wichester House

St James Square. Then, I shall be till 4 (a very interesting day miss'd. Davies has sent in a proof wh. dog. says is most remarkable) Then, I must go to Chelsea Town Hall. & the at Home - dad's Con by Ann, has broken down, bad heart, a clot & fear (private) it will keep her 'quiet' & the next week.
I owed you sister much & sending me into St James Theatre!
It was so amusing, dad's arrival sat on a sofa with sweeping garments like an early Victorian picture! Mrs Bailey was reading a rather long but very good ^{speech} ~~comment~~. There is something delicious about these dear Primitive Dames.

But, what a change of scenes we have known!

Of Jean Preston will be a poor show, the death sound to me good organisers, & the place seems much behind the rest of Lancashire.

The D^o of Marlborough has given us £100 of the English

Woman - 2/6 aff. aff.

Rancerbalfm

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

69574