My dear Philippa, I hope you have had a holiday at Easter and that you enjoyed it. Certainly the weather did its best (in these parts at any rate).

I shouldn't trouble you with this note, but I think I ought to let you know the present position about "Qu. Victoria was furious" (B.B.C.)

I received the scripts (not this time called draft scripts) on Saturday Ap. 20. As they were to be "recorded" on Ap. 23; & Ap. 22 was Easter Monday, I thought I ought to see that any comments reached Broadcasting House by Ap. 21 (Sunday). I tried to ring you up, but without success (I hope because you were away).

I have today received a very polite acknowledgment of my comments wh. do not seem to have been resented.

I think you know that the times of the broadcasts are Sunday at 7 to 7.30 p.m. on May 5, 12 or 19. I am not quite sure of the order, but I think M.G.F. is May 19.

As I am writing, there is another thing. In my Spring Cleaning I have come across a Psalter, beautifully bound, which has a book plate "ex libris Dame Jane Stradley." The version is by Sir Philip Sidney and his sister the Countess of Pembroke.

I have an uneasy feeling that it does not belong to me! Don't trouble to answer in writing, but when I next come to your office (I hope on <sup>May 9</sup>) I will bring the book for you to see <sup>whether</sup> it belongs to you (or your family).

Yours affectionately
P. f. Faulkner
