

THE PARLIAMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

AL/1726

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
CANBERRA, A.C.T.

Devonport,
Tasmania.

28th October, 1946.

Dear Miss How-Martyn,

Thank you very much indeed for your letter and for your kind remarks concerning my work. I value very much the good wishes of the many people who, like yourself, have been kind enough to write since the election.

At the moment I am feeling a little unequal to the task of coping with the work ahead; but trust that with the New Year my health will have improved and I may be able to enter with enthusiasm upon my task.

I distinctly recall my meeting with Miss Goldstein and yourself and I am very gratified that you should have remembered and written to me now.

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

(Dame)
