Dear Captain Taylor,

I have done all I can to get the letters to local M.P.s signed by men voters, and have posted the letters off to other men to sign and have asked them to return them to you, as doubtless you will want the names and addresses of those signing in case any of the M.P.s consent to a meeting. I do not know Sir John Rees' address. You will be having two letters for him. I did not put his name on one of the sheets but you will know it by Mr Simon's signature. Miss Wallis is sending you the one for Lord Henry Bentinck and this too is unnamed. Lord Henry Bentinck's address is 53 Grosvenor Street, W.

We are also trying to get letters in the local Press. I hope the Guardian reporter called on you last night.

With best wishes for the speedy release of Mr Wilks.

Yours truly,

P.S. Miss Crocker is away until Tuesday.
