

Savoy Theatre

Feb 14

Dear Madame.

AL/3269

I have never for the last two years sung without fee, and being now with the Savoy management, it would be unfair to them.

I have arranged with them that I can appear at outside engagements however, as long as the clause

("By kind permission of my Laureillard, Savoy Theatre") is inserted, and will therefore come to sing two or three old English songs with pleasure, as long as I have an expense fee of a guinea. Only kindly see that the arrangement goes no further, as I can only sing for a nominal fee like this for special places, and only three or four times a year.

yours & truly

M Sterling Mackenzie
