Dear Miss Strachey

In the Liberal Year Book for 1907, p. 106, I read a man may be qualified to vote at Parliamentary Elections
"as a Freeholder" if the Freehold is acquired by marriage —

How will this affect our feeling of inconsistency

as to married women being allowed to vote according to Mr. Dickinson's new Bill? -

I shall be so glad to know the opinion of the Central Society for W. S. on this point - & before going to Manchester on the 19th shall be glad to talk with a few friends on y^r answer.

We are doing all we can to interest others in 'Women's Franchise' & have passed on the last issue with Mr. H. Fawcett's letter

An early answer will oblige -

Y^{rs} sincerely

J. Ella S. Welch.
