Dear Mrs Catford,

Thank you very much for your kind letter. I will come by the 3:10 train on Sunday arriving at Welwyn at 4:26; please do not trouble to meet me at Hatfield unless it is quite easy. You do not in the least-<sup>er</sup> mind waiting a quarter of an hour. There is so little waiting in my life!

Unless I hear from you again

I will not get out until

I reach Walsby — I mean,

I shall only change at Hatfield.

Yours sincerely

Evelyn Sharp
