KENSINGTON, W.

Dear Mrs. <sup>Y</sup>anckett:

I agree with
you that the coins.
found in the Tunis
is highly interesting &

significant, but I do not think miss V.

March has col. be bet.

we are'd done by you

yesterday as that in-

mensely sales factory

meeting at Carlton Hall.

I rejoiced that that part of you, such was reported. I would not have you think

me unwilling to do

what I can. I am

just embarked upon

the task of turning
 a play (wh. is written
 as white heat in the last 2 months) into a
 novel — as the indications are that the play is held to be too particular to be natured

upon by the regular
managers - than when
no men more enu-
rative. Instead of
wearing out my soul
by battering at their doors I shall set to

I ~~will~~ bring the thing
into a book as fast
as ever I can. No

need to get that.

accepted however

much a firebrand!

I'd care to

shd you have time to read the type-written
 copy of the play..
 you c'd do it in an hour & a half - I'd gladly send it to you with the hope of

I would gladly
 give you advice

having yr. criticisms
 as to its aim & method.
 It will be done!
 I shall have written
 under the pressure of strong moral conviction.
