Dear Miss Strachey,

Thank you for your letter concerning the Bermondsey Bye-Election. It will be laid before the Executive Committee at their next meeting.

Meanwhile I believe Miss Dimock has already conveyed to you her assurance that we shall until then be pleased to accept your two proposals and give all the help in our power.

Yours truly,

Marion Phillips

P. S. We have no society at East Grinstead, and should be glad of any information you can give us about the district. I enclose a letter from Mrs Richards. Will you kindly return it when you have read it?
