

at all. This is certainly the one of the special duties of the Council of the Society. The best for lodges. The Council of course there is the general work of providing the establishment. I meet such lodges. I am only maintaining these things informally as it were in case it might be welcome to our first word. The who has to lay been fore. I must I am sure be a great help & strength to the C.P. & my earnest wish is to get real workers on our Council.

HOLLINGTON HALL,
SHIPSTON ON STOUR

Nov. 1, 1881.
Hubbard
(AL/3094)

such as I know you
truly are! —

I should be glad to hear from you whether you
w^d wish to be only a
'friend in council', or whether it w^d be possible for you to take any other definite work such as a department?

I need not tell you that a central dept in the C.S.S. must be a member of Council & therefore the whole of my department is necessary

of course
to be
in
the
depart ment
with
the
other
depts
of the Society
President of Central Society with Head of the Diocesan Dept of the same work — they in turn corresponding with
the Associates of the same special work in
branches — The idea
of course that
work on the same lines throughout
the Society,

While adapting the methods to the varied requirements of each locality we have just made lodges & lodgings into a separate department.
For this we need a
head - It has struck
me that you who have
such special links with
this branch of work
in a general way might
feel inclined to take
the direction of this for great part with a
coadjutor.

pleasure of welcoming you while at the same time I have great pleasure in

of each locality
but the
to locate
the

we have just made
into
department

For this we need a
head - It has struck
me that you who have
such special links with
this branch of work
in a general way might
feel inclined to take
the direction of this for
great part with a
coadjutor.