Dear Miss Hill

I shall be always glad to see you re-
appearing as Aunt Pandi when it can be managed. As regards your invitation you will understand how greatly I am

pressed for time when I tell you that I was only able to go to 'Prunella' once. The

Suffrage to my mind
is by far the most important question of the day, and to that I have to sacrifice many social amenities. I am glad you are with us at least: it will help you to forgive my saying no. With thanks

Yours sincerely
Laurence Housman
