Dear Madam,

I write to thank you for your letter received this morning. We should be very glad indeed to arrange for a dinner hour meeting for city workers. It is very kind of you to say that you will make enquiries as to the best place for the meeting to be held. If you would let me know the result of your search we could then begin to make definite arrangements for a meeting.

We should be delighted to arrange for a woman speaker on "Women's fight for Economic Freedom" at any meeting you may arrange. If you would be so kind as to let me know the date, hour and place of meeting. I think that subject would be most interesting.

With many thanks.

Yours truly,

Assistant Secretary.

Miss Mimi Brodie.

Dear Madam
 I am glad that my letter has attracted your attention as I think that the Party workers require a lot of education. As far as I know the Cannon St Hotel is the best place for a dinner hour meeting from 1-2 p.m. but there is also in the Gifflegate & Bishopsgate Institutes. However I will visit where the men's organisations foregather if you write to me a little later on I will let you know the result of my search. Could you oblige me with the name of a woman speaker on the subject of "Woman's Economic Fight for Economic Freedom". I want to arrange for an evening debate among women clerks that is the sort of thing they enjoy. I am yours truly
 Mimi Brodie
