Dear Miss Corbett,

Lady Scott Moncrieff of 11, Cheyne Walk, Chelsea, has a small cottage at Elstead in Surrey about 5 miles from Godalming, and has written to tell me that she would be glad to invite a lady worker to stop with her a few days or a week in order to work up the surrounding villages. She says that she and Sir Collin will be there during August and half September, and as he is more or less of an "Anti", if anyone goes she ^{ought to} ~~should~~ be an agreeable guest. So as to conciliate him

Yours sincerely,

P.S.
