Dear Miss Bradstone

Thank you so much for your letter & enclosures.

I hadn't seen your Penguin Book or read forthcoming reviews, as it was the time of much disaster at home -

I am thrilled to know you are going to have a full dress debate next week on Family allowances, & that so much excellent support has been guaranteed. - after 25 yrs of mostly waiting & silently working -

Out of the salvage of my home, came this v. soiled Reprint of "The Social Effects of Separation allowances" & if it is not too soiled for you to handle I think it may be of use to you

The copy of the "fustlewoman" was also saved, & I could let you have it back if you wanted it, if you would kindly return it to me when finished with it. On re-reading my article I think satisfactory answers should be found to questions 19 & 20, on your questionnaire. I have put little marks to pages 4 & 9.

I also enclose a brief resumé, for you to do what you like with it.

I am afraid it would be too long for a letter in the Press -

In haste to get it off by post today

Ever yrs

Emmy Mabel.
