

4490

Barakar

30th May 193

My dear Pippa

Nothing very thrilling has happened since I last wrote. I am back again in my house with a new roof over my head - The Derby sweep has been drawn and I have not got 5000 - There was a cyclone in Calcutta last week the tail end of which reduced one of the walls of my house to a thickness of 3 inches - I have just been paid my wages for the 2nd half of last October - Mrs Barry is rather seedy - I have got six dogs called Joey, diya, Bugler, Marmaduke, The Hippex, and Sammy, the 1st and last of whom belong to my line - hum hum.

I have just been p. no. 4 we said that before - and I really think I have got to the end of my adventures - There have been the usual Sundays in Atsanzil to which Herbert generally comes in his carriage - the latest news

I heard from him was about you in the character of the H.G. I hope Papa approved of the photographs taken for him by my orders he will see by them that the bridge is getting on - I hope to lay the first stone of my own private little bridge on the first of June. I have just read Stevenson's last book at vast expense 'Island Nights Entertainments', the pictures are very nice; if you like I will send it on to you, in exchange for which I should like you to send me the piano music of 'Dancing in the Barn' if you can get it.

Love to the family

Your loving brother

Ralph.

Finsbury Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

749(d)

Puzzle for Marjorie ⁴⁴⁹⁰

Love letter.

2 L N K

1 (B) A U

0 l n k

& 4 2 C (U)

2 BU 4 A

R L N O E tttt

1 4 (U)

4 1 ee

1 C A U.

N.B. This is a poem.