To

Miss Philippa Strachey,

Dear Madam,

The Executive Committee yesterday carefully considered your request that a ballot should be held at Nottingham as your nominations for the additional members to the Committee did not reach this Office in time. After full discussion the Committee came regretfully to the conclusion that as the Societies and the ladies concerned had been notified that there was to be no ballot, it was impossible to alter the arrangement.

The Committee wish to point out that these elections are only for six months, and it will be in your power to nominate whom you choose at the next Annual meeting, subject to the Rules.

Yours faithfully,

Margery I. Corbett
