Dear Miss Shacker -
With your place in the hands of your

Committee on Wednesday receiving my resignation as a member of it, with this explanation which compels me to ask them to accept it.

When I stood for re-election last year.

I had every pound to believe that I was so far restored after my long illness - that ~~after~~ I should be quite able for my usual work this Spring.

A severe attack of Influenza from the after effects of which I am still suffering, upset my calculations, depressed me & unnerve of the strength

I was slowly gaining - & ^{relaxed} was greatly ~~improved~~ my complete restoration to health. Concerning to this temporary setback I have not at present much thought - and my doctor absolutely prohibits me undertaking much work at present - at the same time - he assures me - that with proper care & rest - there is no reason why I should not be quite strong again for the autumn, but these are essential under these circumstances I wish the Committee to accept my resignation as it is not fair to occupy a place on a Com^{tee} whose meetings I must not at present attend.

If - as I fully believe and expect - I am quite strong again before the annual meeting comes round - I can ^{if desired} offer myself for re-election.
I have entered into this full explanation in order that the Committee may know that
