Christmas Day,

Many many thanks, dearest of loved friends - for your perfect little letter of understanding & sympathy.

It expresses just what I feel.

Except that up to now I do not have the sense of separation - but rather the contrary.

Physical weakness brings on inward separation - a veil is drawn over the mind & expression is hampered. I think of my 83/80

Mother no as young & full of health & vigour. That's how I feel. I hear her laugh!

She is younger than me.

My love to you & Daisy.

He is abroad on Tuesday =

The Morning Post reported a letter about Rhodesia. I took the liberty of mentioning your name in a quite general way. i.e. naming you as one of the people who knew the natives & admired their "Mother Law". Miss Boyle had brought

General charges against the Native treatment of women. I will have the correspondence sent to you. Best love

E. D. L.
