Dear Comrade

Many thanks.

Would Thursday (28th)
be a good day for me
to come to work?

Yes: "The Portrait of a Dictator" is a real object lesson, though naturally I don't deal with it with that object.

I came down with a cold
youth last week, from the relative mildness of the north.

With kindest regards &
good wishes for Christmas
& New Year to you & yours

Yours sincerely
affectionately

W B Cunningham
