Dear Miss Nettelfold,

A plaque is being placed by the London County Council on number 2 Gower Street to commemorate Dame Millicent Fawcett's long residence there. It will be unveiled on Friday, 11th June (Dame Millicent's birthday) by Miss Philippa Strachey, at 12 noon.

My Executive Committee would be very glad if you could attend this little ceremony. Could you please let me know if you can do so?

Mrs. Jeger - MP for the constituency, has kindly agreed to preside for us

For those who do not know the house, it is at the Bedford Square end of Gower Street. The nearest underground station and 'bus stop is Tottenham Court Road, and Bailey Street the turning to take into Bedford Square.

Yours sincerely

H. V. Horton

Secretary.

P.S. As a member, you will have had our circular. But this is to say how especially glad we should be if you could join our little company.

Many thanks. But - regretfully, this time is impossible for me
