11th June, 1909.

Dear Miss Strachey,

Do you think your Committee can do anything with the following suggestion made by one of our Organizers, she writes me--"may I suggest that Hampstead Heath could be strongly worked during the Summer month, it is crowded with people in the evenings and there are excellent stands. The Socialists and the Salvation Army share them on Sundays but on ordinary evenings at 8.30 any speaker could get a good crowd in a few minutes".

Yours sincerely,

Margery I. Corbett
