HILL SIDE,
March 17/52 CHESTERTON ROAD, CAMBRIDGE.

Dear Mr Fawcett

AL/1827

Thank you very much for your letter,
which gave me great pleasure. I cannot help feeling a little frightened by the confidence you have all expressed in me. - but you are responsible! and at any rate I can do

my best to make it succed. It seemed right to say yes, after the strong way the proposal was put and all I heard. And I do not think that either my husband or I shall dislike it. In fact I am sure I shall not.
I shall enjoy being

more among them all very much. All at Newbern are very cordial about it.

Believe me

Your very sincerely
Thos. Widdell Tidwell

I hear that Philippe has given intense pleasure by staying to read 3 of the third year

Mathematical Students for a fortnight. I wish they were better than they are. We have a very poor set going in this year.
