My dear Fanny,

I am glad to hear
you have been away
the cleaner we have done you good, tho'
it will be better to return to the empty
house - I am afraid
you are still not feeling well, perhaps you may get more

That now you are back in your old surroundings having had the chance.
I was at Sumner
nearly 40 years ago
with one of my college friends - It was quite a small village then that country, no
railway, tho' I am sure I can well believe it was banking not in fact with Sumner I do not like the phrase esteemed teacher, and better than you do.

You hear Rector does not seem happy in his phrase at all -

I am sorry you do not feel equal to coming over ~~for~~ this year, but you must follow your own inclinations & perhaps next year you may have more heart for

Such things - It seems hardly polite to us
New Staff that the birds elect should not have come to see them and I can understand they think it strange.

I note what you say about your Will, it is very good of you, but you must not feel that it is a matter which means not perfectly justified along time in attorney. Worsnes
