Dear Mrs Fawcett,

If your meeting at the Horticultural Hall on Saturday is in the evening, I should like to offer you my services as a steward. I am tired of people who interrupt meetings, and should be glad to help you in any way.

Please don't think this is a trap, or that I want to get in so as to make a disturbance. You probably do not

I think you may like I make a note of Mr Roper's name and address for our Albert Hall meeting

He is brother of Miss Esther Roper of an Lancashire
& Co Textile workers

I have known him for several years & feel he is quite to be trusted
M^{rs} Fawcett

remember me very well, as it is so long since I saw you, - but I hope you will consider the fact that my name is the same as my sister's is an evidence of good intent.

I am

yours very sincerely

Reginald E. Roper.
