St. Patrick's Day! 1904

32 ADDISON ROAD,
KENSINGTON, W.

My dear Mrs Fawcett.

It was a good majority even if it was only a pious opinion on the part of many. Mr. Cook well, & keeps us going in Parliament. I have just rec^d the agenda for the next meeting of the W. d. U. A. Ex! I note with amusement "consideration of new members". Mrs Webb like told me yesterday, that we ought to write formal letters of resignation. I thought what we did (said at Coxton Hall was eno^g? However, the arrival of the agenda seems to confirm this, so I have written off, in not too serious a vein Daddy's letter. What Mrs dy Helton said, prevented daddy Finlay from voting. She sat still, so made it 99. I think we sh. get as many resignations as we can, so as to leave it all with the Tariff Reformers.

Do advise daddy Jebb & daddy Aveling to withdraw. The only unfair & rather insulting article on the crisis, comes of the speech to my fr. the Scots man.

I have written a rather long comment wh. may, more probably - may not go in - you note how the little Sigler has fared in Dorset.
I ^{much} rather wish you had gone with us in the women's Free Trade Union. It is an honest attempt to do the one thing free of all party politics.
I meet Mrs Bamford Slack my Co. Hon. Sec. tomorrow!
Mrs Broadley Reid, at our amalgamation Com. yesterday, looked over at daddy

Alice Shaw Stewart, wd to me, "I never thought the whirligig of time wd make me sit on the same Cornwith Dad & Alice S.S." I think their respective parents had a contest. I thought them all very full of vigorous life. Yrs affately

Francis Balfour
