Dearest Nellie

I cannot get home until late because of the cancelled trains but I have telephoned home & find all very well & happy.

The flowers, which I hope will reach you,
will remind you that some of us understand, & that we still retain the hope & promise of new life in Spring, even in the dull days of winter.

With our united best love & good cheer.

Always your loving

Old Tom.
