

A4/1661

CRANSTON'S WAVERLEY HOTEL,
SOUTHAMPTON ROW,
LONDON, W.C.1.

Telegrams: "Robsart, Westcent. London."

Telephones { 2330 Museum.
2331 ..

12. 2. 30.

Dear Miss Ward.

I enclose herewith - the article of the heathen rite, which is known as circumcision of girls

This is the rite as I reported it to The Duchess of Atholl.

from which she made her statements both in Parliament & at yesterday's meeting.

I may say I witnessed the ceremony, & was able to take photographs which are now in the hands of Lord Passfield

If there is any information I can give I shall be only too pleased to do so, because my whole heart is set on doing what I can to free these poor girls from this evil & suffering.

I left a family of sixty girls in one dormitories but I hope that through public sympathy, we will soon be able to shelter the hundreds who require our care.

I only came down from Edinburgh for this meeting, & return next week again.

Yours Sincerely -

Agnes E Brown

7 45 Spottiswoode Street
Edinburgh