

Aberquilly Place, Jan. 26. 1811.

My dear Madam,

I have returned the inclosed draft paid by Mr. Harford. You will be glad to see your friend's benefaction, which I have applied to our Superannuated Curates' fund, exactly as to relieve a very distressing Case, of which I will soon send you an account together our present list of Benefactors & Subscribers to this fund.
 We shall have a meeting for the purpose on Tuesday the 29th to make an order for granting [£]25 per ann.

Dunt to The Lord Bishop of S. David's Abergavilly Palace near Carmarthen

to the poor man before alluded to.

I am,

My Dear Madam,

Barley Wood
Monday

Your faithful humble servant

My dear Friend

To St. David's.

You will see why I wrote Bill - Be so good as send it, when sent on to the Bishop, as I have lost a £10 Bill by Post. - The Bp., to whom I gave the choice would much to give the whole to poor distressed clergy men and he wished the priests to to know, that in that case the fruits of her pious charity would immediately be felt.
I inserted - I am truly anxious to know how she is - do let me hear. - We have been much alarmed by a slight Paralytic stroke of my sister Betty - Y^r very truly
