My dear Mrs. Fawcett

I am afraid that you count me then as one numbered among the lost.
However I am not dead but living to do still more mischief than I have yet done I have dreamed of a new & lovely vision of a new & catholic Church of Secular Salvation which is beginning to be born which I hope you & Mrs Barnes & I may work together.
I am glad I have young Garratt. He is a good lad who will make out.
I could not find a portrait of me as I was for I shall be again comrade.

May God give you a happy & successful New Year. Believe me to be P.D. Yours ever faithfully
W. D. Head
