Dear Miss Barry

I must apologise to you much for not having acknowledged the invitation to the evening party at Miss Pielon Surkewill's 207 Garden. Do pardon me. I have had to have a very operation on my leg & have felt terribly slack & helpless, tho' that does not excuse me.

Have you seen the statement ~~that~~ Chinese girl refugees are being collected in a crowd throughout for private slave auctions in Chinese houses, the prices being attached to the girls & the bidding exceedingly brief? While not at all sympathetic with Japan, it is this worthiness that creates me withhold a kind of sympathy from China. Do you think it can be done about it? You send the statement I saw to Miss P. J., who will pass it on to you if you like it. And have you got into touch with Archdeacon Queen on the Kenya question?

I hear he is in England now.

Kind regards from

Yours

Edna Boyle
